Rev. Gant Welcomed into Full Fellowship!

Dear ones,

I am so pleased to share with you that I've been welcomed into Full Fellowship by the Ministerial Fellowshiping Committee of the Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA). This is the last step in becoming a minister with all the rights and privileges that come with it.

The process of ministerial formation in our tradition is rigorous:

It begins with applying to the UUA to become an Aspirant, submitting essays and letters of recommendation.

The next steps included:

- a comprehensive Career Assessment (psychological assessments and aptitude tests along with a 1 1/2 day in-person session with a psychologist);
- a unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (I completed mine by serving as a chaplain for 10 weeks, splitting my time between a Trauma 1-level hospital and a Behavioral Health Unit);
- a vote by a congregation to affirm that they "see a minister" in me (my home congregation in Lawrence, KS);
- completing an M.Div (I graduated from Meadville Lombard Theological School in Chicago in May 2020);
- completing a two-year, part-time internship (All Souls UU Church, Kansas City, MO 2018-2020);

- interviewing with the Ministerial Fellowship Committee (MFC) and being accepted into Preliminary Fellowship (December of 2019);
- being ordained by a congregation (in my case, co-ordained by Lawrence, KS, and All Souls KC in May 2020);
- being "passed" three times by the MFC based on yearly self evaluations, a mentor's affirmation, and evaluations from UUBN's Board and Committee on Shared Ministry (Feb 2024).
- meeting monthly with a mentor
- attending the monthly meetings of the "First Year Ministers" seminar (2020-2021)
- continuing monthly meeting with a peer group for support and accountability

Now that I'm in Full Fellowship, I am eligible to supervise an intern, serve as a mentor, and hold other leadership positions in the UU Ministers' Association and the UUA. (Plus, no more formal evaluations!)

I am grateful to the many people who have encouraged and supported me along the way-- people who wrote the letters of recommendation needed for almost every step of the way, who listened when I needed an ear, and who worked on the many evaluations I needed to turn in. Thank you to all the members of the Board and the Committee on Shared Ministry for your time preparing evaluations, serving as a sounding board, helping me learn the history and culture of the congregation, and helping me grow.

The work of the Committee on Shared Ministry will now shift from a focus on me as the minister toward a focus on the health of all the ministries of the church, asking questions about how well we are living our mission and what's next.

I look forward to continuing to serve this faith that I love-- and doing it alongside you all! Thank you! We will celebrate with cake on February 25th between worship and the congregational meeting.

Rev. Rebecca

UU Peep Dioramas!

It's PEEP time! Ready for our traditional peep diorama building? A project for all ages! I have Peeps, boxes, paper, and other supplies you may need. Create one together as a family project or have each person create their own. The only guideline is the theme of Unitarian Universalism. Past dioramas have highlighted favorite church events, church spaces, sources of our faith, or a principle in action. Bring your creation to church before March 30th so they can be on display for Easter! See photos of past year dioramas in Fell.

Adult RE: Date with Death Club “What to do with a Dead Body”

Saturday, March 2, 9:00-11:00, Fell Room

After a death, the body must be taken care of— “disposed.” Common means are burial and traditional cremation. But may you want to donate your body to science? Yet there are evolving technologies and new choices to be made. Perhaps you want a green burial? Or you want your body to become compost? We’ll explore what’s out there and what choices you may want to make now to get what you want then.

Common Read: On Repentance and Repair: Making Amends in an Unapologetic World, by Danya Ruttenberg. Participants are now choosing a meeting time to discuss the book. 4 registered.

Let Us Read A Novel: The Night Watchman: A Novel, winner of the Pulitzer Prize; Louise Erdrich. HarperCollins, 2020. Erdrich is well-known writer of Native American stories. We will read slowly and deeply. Purchase or find the book on your own. 10 Registered.

For those who like self-exploration, Tom is organizing a discussion of Søren Kierkegaard's The Sickness Unto Death. Translation by Bruce H. Himmse. See review in The Nation magazine, Dec. 11/18, 2023, pp. 44-46, by Clare Carlisle, professor of philosophy at King's College, London, or ask me for a copy of the review. Kierkegaard is interested in "our deeper, truer self...beyond bodies, thoughts, and emotions." This book explores what Kierkegaard calls "despair," recognized when we are reminded about parts of ourselves that we normally overlook or have forgotten about, and an experience shocks us back into recognizing that loss of the self. Kierkegaard thought that this is evidence of spiritual disconnection from something he calls god. But Carlisle says that "there is nothing specifically Christian, or even biblical, about this notion of godly connection and disconnection." We will work our way through the book in parts. Sign up by March 1 through UUBN office or through tomclemenstomten66@gmail.com. 4 Registered.

Share Your Writing met February 7, 7-8 P.M. with 5 participants. The next session is Wednesday, March 20, 7-8 P.M. Writing at any stage is welcome. We share and discuss.

Advocacy Team Visits Rep. Chung

At the suggestion of UUANI, three UUBN members, Julie Prandi, Cindy Cotton, and Jan Reynolds, met with Representative Sharon Chung on February 19 to lobby for bills that would open up the possibility of parole for people sentenced to life in prison or others who have been incarcerated for 20+ years. This is the reform that the Illinois Prison Ministry knows is the number one priority for people behind bars and their families. Bringing back parole (which was abolished in Illinois in 1978) would give people a chance to demonstrate before the Parole Board that they were rehabilitated, pose no threat to society, and could therefore be released early. Studies show that older inmates have aged out of crime and recidivism rates of such people are below 1%.

If you want more information or are interested in participating, please email Julie Prandi.

Summary of the January 2024 Budget Feedback Sessions

At the December Congregational Meeting, Treasurer Nancy Armstrong proposed a budget for 2024 to the congregation. She indicated the need for feedback from the congregation before the final budget would be voted on by the congregation on Feb. 25th. Three feedback sessions were held in Jan. 2024. Participants (25 of them) enthusiastically had many questions and several suggestions for raising more money and cutting expenses. Additional input came from two members who were unable to attend but had many ideas.

Nancy will rework the proposed budget and present it on Feb. 25th to the congregation for their approval.

If you wish to receive a report of the feedback (4 pages), email

Town of Normal Sustainability Plan ("Vision 2050") Needs Your Input!

Every 5 years, the Town of Normal calls together a diverse group of citizens to create a Vision Plan for the community. This exercise establishes goals and priorities to ensure Normal is a great place to live 25 years in the future. The theme of the Vision 2050 plan is sustainability! The citizen group behind the Vision 2050 plan has created a survey to engage as many people as possible in their effort to set forth sustainability goals and priorities.

As UU's, our 7th Principle calls on us to respect the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part. You can put that principle to work by completing the survey and staying tuned for additional public engagement opportunities later this spring and summer. The Town Council has a strong history of taking seriously the recommendations of its constituents, whether those people are residents, employees at businesses in Normal, or visitors to Normal.

"Making a difference" in the world can seem daunting when you're looking at the international or national stage, but making a difference right here at home is completely within reach. So after you complete the survey, please circulate it to friends, family, and groups within your network.

Bring Your Pop Can Tabs to Church

Ronald McDonald House Charities provides housing, support, and community so that families with children who have serious medical needs can stay together while receiving medical care. This global organization has over 380 Ronald McDonald Houses in 64 countries. Each one accommodates families with children receiving treatment who are being treated at nearby hospitals and medical facilities. Regardless of whether you choose to eat at McDonald's, RMH is a nonprofit organization that truly supports families facing the emotional and economic toll of having a critically ill child in the hospital or other treatment centers.

We are one of those families. For the past 9 years, we have found a welcoming refuge at RMH facilities in the Chicago area. We are so grateful for the organization. We didn't know what RMH's purpose was until we needed it, so we try to share its importance when we can. We've participated in a variety of fundraising activities and advocacy for RMH because we've met so many families facing difficult circumstances who have benefitted from a place of support - from a mother who emigrated to the US with her husband from Iraq and was caring for her 1-year-old with a large brain tumor, to a family from Kentucky whose two children were being treated for life-threatening autoimmune disorders.

There are ways to support this organization that require only your upcycling! Help us collect can tabs (or pull tabs), which contain a trace of copper and are recycled by RMH to raise funds. These small tabs can add up to tens of thousands of dollars used to house and feed families and provide supportive staff and volunteers.

Bring your can tabs to church and place them in the RMH donation box located by the RE info in the Fell Room (with many thanks to Terina for suggesting this!). We will deliver your donated tabs to the Ronald McDonald House where we stay in Chicago near Lurie Children's Hospital.
