MEET OUR NEW MEMBERS!

Ama Oforiwaa Aduonum (Oforiwaa) is a Kwahu Akan of the Aduana lineage in Ghana and a mother of 2 beautiful children, Kwadwo and MaAdwoa. Her appellations are obooba, Child of Rock! Ogyaba, Child of Fire! She is a professor of Music, teaching courses in Black Music and Ethnomusicology, and Director of West African Drumming Music and Dance Ensemble at Illinois State University. She is a Queen Mother, a poet, published author, an award-winning and nationally recognized playwright and performer focused on practice-led research, indigenous knowledge, and sensory studies on music traditions of the African Diaspora. Her multi-modal work, Walking with My Ancestors, combines music, theater, and dance to interrogate and disrupt the violence against and negation of African selfhood we find in the African histories, slavery, and racism. Oforiwaa has been attending UUBN since 2012.

Allison MacLeod-Carlson grew up in Rockford, and for the first few years in that area's UU church. She was a dancer for 12 years and competitive martial artist for about 5 years. Allison can't really dance, but can definitely break a few boards, without guarantee that anyone actually meant for those boards to be broken.

Allison obtained a degree in psychology at Bradley University and stuck around Peoria as a social worker for the better part of a decade. She eventually met her future husband who convinced her to work at State Farm, where she has very strong opinions about literally the most boring insurance things anyone has ever heard of.

Throughout her life she's been passionate about nature conservation and animal welfare, volunteering with wild animal rehabilitation, removing trash from forests, and somehow tricking her husband into joining her in a composting and jar goblin kind of lifestyle.

She spends most of her time with her husband, friends, family, and pets...the cutest little agents of chaos you've ever seen. She and her husband have been doing a lot of crochet and Dungeons & Dragons type games as of late, and are looking forward to some morel hunting with her father in May.

Connor MacLeod-Carlson is a 33 year with pronouns He/Him and looks like a sentient pair of eyebrows. He came to the church to explore more about this wonderful community and find new ways to volunteer. He is more than happy to share unfounded opinions on history, music, or anything nerdy. He is joining with along with his loved wife Allison, who first suggested coming. He currently aspires to finish any craft project and continue to learn the lyre.

Jillian Escobedo has been going to this church since he was a toddler. He lives with a 35 year old turtle he inherited from his grandma, one stinky rabbit, and two dogs. He has volunteered at the WBRP bike coop every Thursday for the last 2 years, plays piano, and is a full time student.

He is the unpaid assistant to the re director. He also happens to be her son.

Sheryl Henry lives on a small sustainable farm with 2 dogs, 17 chickens, 4 ducks, and 3 turkeys. Her son and daughter and their families also live on the property and help with the farm. Sheryl teaches nursing at ISU and is very involved with ISU's faculty union.

She loves to read (anything), hike, run, and kayak. She loves hanging out with her kids and grandchildren. The Coffee House in uptown Normal makes her happy.

The Houghtons moved to Bloomington in 2013. Adam (he/him) is a family medicine doctor at Bloomington Primary Care. He enjoys reading fiction, playing video games, playing D&D/board games, painting miniatures for the aforementioned games, and chai lattes.

Marie (she/her) is a speech-language pathologist currently contracting with local school systems. In her free time, she enjoys reading, hunting for mushrooms, and spending time with her family.

Mason (he/they) is 12 and enjoys nature, drawing, swimming, and “banging out to random music.” His favorite snack is graham crackers with whipped cream cheese.

Lydia (she/her) is 10 and enjoys anything Taylor Swift, musicals, Squishmallows, swimming, animals, and fashion.

All the Houghtons like spending time with their friends, as well. They have a sweet dog named Wiley and a leopard gecko named Jasper. They have been attending UUBN since summer 2022.

Sawyer Keithley (He/They) lives with their partner Rae and their two pets, Artemis (a social butterfly masquerading as a Pitbull) and Oscar (an adorable leopard gecko). Sawyer graduates from ISU this spring with a master’s degree in applied economics and an unofficial degree in being a nerd. Sawyer loves playing dungeons and dragons with their partner and friends, cozy video games (where he makes himself unnecessarily stressed), and making various crafts! One of Sawyer’s passions is fighting for social and economic justice, which they are excited about pursuing with UUBN as a member.

Rae Morefield is graduating ISU in the Fall of '25 with a degree in History and Social Sciences Secondary Education. They are an active member of the queer community and use any pronouns. She enjoys relaxing and playing video games with their partner Sawyer, reading Wikipedia articles, and playing DnD with their friends and roommates. She also has a 5-year-old female leopard gecko named Oscar. Rae is very passionate about many social issues and is glad to have found such an amazing and progressive community in UUBN and is excited to grow.

Bruce Whitmore's near seventy years involve acculturation in our Midwest and the American South. He is enthralled with the cultural riches of both regions, which are his spiritual homes. In this vein, he is a participant-witness to how race-based caste and patriarchal socialization are intertwined systems of living damage that draw everyone involved away from wholeness. Bruce has also seen how spiritual communities can decide to reverse this harm. He received graduate degrees in theology, anthropology, and visual studies. He now paints in watercolor. Bruce's spouse, Deidre R. Mitchell, is a retired historian and his fitness buddy. He has two adult children and two grandchildren. Bruce embraces his heritage as an Episcopalian and retired priest. He has extended experiences in Dakota tribal ceremonies and Black church life. He wants to 'tag along,' as a lay person while our church walks toward wholeness.

Religious Exploration News

Terina Carter, Director of Religious Exploration, LRE@uubn.org
Planning Team: Erin Ripley-Gataric (Team Lead), Jeska Vannoy, Mercy Davison

Date with Death Club: Writing Your Own Obituary Saturday, April 6, 9:00-11:00, Fell Room

Just like planning your own memorial service, you can spend time now putting together your obituary. We'll explore both traditional obituaries (the kind you are likely to find in the local newspaper) and more story-based obituaries that can help us connect with our own deeper purpose in whatever time we have left on this earth. We'll use a specially developed worksheet to guide us that you can take home.

All are welcome to this last session of Date with Death Club!

Turning Points in UU History - Online Series Open to All UUs!

Wednesdays, April 3 to May 8 | 7:00pm-8:15 pm CT on Zoom

First Dallas UU is offering an online session of "Turning Points in UU History" series for all Unitarian Universalists everywhere! This series explores turning points and controversies in our history, delving into the complexities of these historical moments through primary texts, to understand how they shaped Unitarian Universalism and how we relate to our faith today.

Let me know if you're interested in participating so I can register us as a group.

Gathering Spaces

Throughout this church year, people have asked for ways to connect with others in the church who have similar experiences. Ex. are also parenting, are young adults, are part of the LGBTQ+ community, or are BIPOC. This could mean a shared online space for conversation; a small group participating in spiritual development, a social group for outings, or simply a contact list people can opt into. Have ideas? Don't have ideas but are interested? Let's talk about ways to create gathering spaces for any of these groups.

Cake Raffle 2024

A giant thank you to every single person who contributed to the annual Cake Raffle. It was my first year running it and you made it such a positive experience. The talent of the bakers in our community is impressive and we are so grateful to each of you for donating your time, supplies, and skills. We had 27 desserts donated and raised $485 for Gnagey Library. These funds go towards supplies and books to enrich our spiritual lives. An extra thanks to Terina and Rain for your mentoring and help running the event.

Serving the immigrants of downstate
Illinois since 1995

THE IMMIGRATION PROJECT

This Month's Community Plate Recipient The Immigration Project

This March, our donations go to the Immigration Project.

- The Immigration Project is the principal provider of immigration legal services in Central and Southern Illinois. Despite the fact that over 100,000 immigrants live south of I-80, The Immigration Project is the only non-profit, legal service staffing full time immigration attorneys, serving 700-1000 clients a year!
- Access to immigration legal services can be the difference between struggling in poverty and economic self-sufficiency; the difference between living in a domestic violence situation and escaping it; the difference between hopelessness and hope. The work that The Immigration Project does is VITAL for community health, individual wellness, and immigrant success.

- The work that The Immigration Project does not only changes lives, but saves them! In addition to standard immigration cases like adjustment of status and naturalization, The Immigration Project has a Survivors of Trauma program, dedicated to helping refugees and immigrant victims of domestic abuse, sexual abuse, and crime. By making a donation to The Immigration Project today, you can help build healthy, whole communities in our state.
- A couple of fun facts: one in six workers in Illinois are an immigrant and one in seven people in Illinois are an immigrant. Also, 97 cents of every dollar donated to The Immigration Project goes directly to help immigrant clients.

To donate to The Immigration Project, make out your check to The Immigration Project and deliver to UUBN. Donations can also be made via the Breeze Online Giving website here or from your smartphone when you download the app. Our subdomain is uubn.
